YANKS WHIP BRAYES Sunday Baseball Bill Is | SPEAKER BIG FACTOR NEW INTERNATIONAL HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

By DANIEL.

TEW YORK city and such other communities of this State as desire it are assured of Sunday baseball. The passage of the Lawson bill by the Senate yesterday made Sunday amateur and professional games certain, for the Assembly is even more solidly aligned in favor of the measure than was the upper house. After the measure becomes a law the Board of Aldermen will have to legalize its application to this city, for it is a local option measure. However, there is no question that the Aldermen will do their bit quickly, for the board already has gone on record with a resolution favoring Sunday baseball Giants this afternoon, and the National organized at a meeting at the Biltmore record with a resolution favoring Sunday baseball.

League champions were keeled over for the first reverse in 1918 by the Cleveland Indians. The Indians played some land Indians. The Indians played some of which are members of the new organization. The delegates voted to open Manhattan Island and won the first contest of the ten game training trip series. September 15.

With the league is to retain the Class AA rank held by the discount of the cities of which are members of the new organization. The delegates voted to open the law. The combination which sought to restrain personal liberty and the season on May 8 and to close on the season on May 8 and to close on the season on May 8 and to close on the season of the ten game training trip series. With the law of the cleveland of the law of the law of the law of the law. The combination which sought to restrain personal liberty and the law of at this session of the Legislature. On Wednesday the men at Albany passed the Sunday moving picture bill and yesterday morning they erased the prohibition against Sunday fishing, only to follow it with that arch insult to the "reformers"—the Sunday baseball appresal.

Most of the Clergy Favored Passage of Bill.

The Sunday baseball fight is won, but it took a war to win it. For many years the advocates of deviation from the blue Sundays of Cotton Mather and Salem witchcraft fought at Albany in vain. There was no concerted action for Sunday baseball, whereas the opponents always had organized lobby to fight against it and similar measures. This year Magistrate McQuade and associated supporters of the Sunday baseball move-ment fought their opponents with their own weapons. It was shown that most of the clergy of all denominations favored a liberal Sunday law-that they were more concerned over what a man should do on the Subbath than over what he should not do. It was shown that chaplains with our troops in France thought nothing of going from their pulpits on Sunday right onto healthy sport, whether indulged in or merely witnessed, was conducive to a good, healthy state of mind and a moral cleanliness than truly was next to godliness. We will venture that Sunday baseball will make the excise violation question almost negligible, for if men have ball games to go to they will not be prone to wend their way through the "family entrance." It's a glorious victory for the right and we congratulate the Senators who

Since the Tuscania was torpedoed some weeks before Rivers fought in James R. Price, president of the old San Diego we think it safe to say that the Ybarra who went down was not present. Bob Bescher Is Offered an "Insult" by Milwaukee.

Bob Bescher, once recipient of a salary of $7,500 a season for playing the Giant outfield, says he has been insulted. Bescher has been offered a contract calling for only $2,800 by the Milwaukee club, and he declares that he can get as much driving the sprinkling cart in his home town of New London, Ohio, and playing semi-professional games on Saturdays and Sundays. Verily some of the stars have come upon evil days. It wasn't Woods and Max Winchell, defeated them so long ago that Bescher came to the Giants halled as a rival of Tyrus Cobb.

But as a Giant the former Red outfielder flivvered. There's a rather interesting tale behind the coming of Bescher to New York. The trade which sent Hersog to Cincinnati and Bescher here was GREENLEAF INCREASES LEAD. engineered by John B. Foster, secretary of the New York club, while McGraw was away on the world tour. The manager of the Giants knew nothing Defeats Concannon Twice in Billbout it until he came home, and then he proceeded to throw fifty-seve different varieties of fits. Before McGraw went away he saw Artie Shafer threat but that he meant every word of it. It seems that Foster did no take Shafer seriously and he proceeded to release Herzog-a man much needed at that time. Now Herzog is holding out on the Braves. Shafer is in the Marine Corps on the coast and Bescher is offered only $2,800 by cannon 752. The scores: Milwaukee. How times do change! Beacher is not likely to wind up or lation justified Class AA rank, with a that sprinkling cart, for his folks are wealthy. If they had not been so Bescher might have turned out a real rival of Cobb.

Those who have seen Dr. Crocker in action pronounce him the best Three Cushion Billiard League match at amateur heavyweight they yet have watched. In gymnasium bouts he has Thum's Moore won by 50 to 31 in held his own with Young Jack O'Brien, Homer Smith and several other sixty-four limings. heavy professionals. Boxing has worked wonders for the professor—it has the winner was 4 and for the loser of given him back his health and ability to work hard and he never tires of Elis is Milwaukee's representative in inging the praises of the sport. "If I were to teach to the young men of the this country the lesson that has been taught me-physical preparedness." says Dr. Crocker, "boxing would be my theme.

"One must train to triumph, and the first step in this direction is for OLIVER'S GELDING one to pack a punch in the fist and not in one's stomach. Physical culture without boxing is like coffee without sugar, and now that I realize how I Mr. Kyne also announced that he had have benefited myself I do not wonder that the Government has included hung up a cup for the Evening Mail's boxing in the curriculum of military training. Boxing has given me a new marathon race in honor of Martin.
